“Great Texas Warrant Roundup” begins Saturday

State-wide effort will target people with outstanding warrants

Sachse, TX – More than 205 law enforcement jurisdictions from across Texas will participate in the “Great Texas Warrant Roundup,” beginning Saturday, March 6, 2010. In this state-wide effort, officers will arrest people with outstanding warrants pending before their respective Municipal Courts.

Law enforcement agencies and cities throughout the state conduct roundups at different times throughout the year, focusing on violators with outstanding Class C misdemeanor warrants; most of which are traffic-related. Once again, law enforcement agencies statewide are combining their efforts. Those arrested will be taken before court judges for arraignment and disposition of their cases. Full payment or suitable arrangement for full payment will be due at that time. Other options may include a cash bond, a Magistrate Court appearance or attorney representation.

Notices have been mailed to persons with warrants active against them. Officials noted that although the concentration is on Class C charges, higher charge warrants may also be served.

People with outstanding city citations are strongly encouraged to appear in person or contact their respective municipal court in order to avoid the embarrassment of being arrested at home, work or school.

The Sachse Municipal Court can be contacted at (972) 495-1212 ext. 27 or ext. 32. The court will accept the following payment types: cash, money order, cashier’s check, or Visa/Mastercard. Payments can also be made online at www.cityofsachse.com. Only full payments will clear a warrant status.

The most current Warrant List may be found on the Municipal Court page of the city’s website.
